
AN UNPRECEDENTED YEAR

ROBIN  HOOD

ANNUAL REPORT ON IMPACT

2020

Dedicated to the 32,000 New Yorkers lost to COVID-19 and their loved ones. In their memory, and after all the hard lessons learned in 2020, we strive to rebuild a New York City that is more equitable and resilient than ever before.

Robin Hood fights poverty in New York City. Your generous support allows us to build and fuel the most impactful community-based organizations serving New Yorkers and their families across the five boroughs.

Thanks to the Robin Hood Board, which underwrites all administrative and operating expenses, 100% of your donation goes directly to the poverty fight.

ROBINHOOD.ORG

When I became the CEO of Robin Hood, I took the helm of an organization that invested in my neighborhood when I moved to the Bronx to live with my grandparents 30 years ago. I think often about what would have become of children like myself without the commitment of poverty-fighting organizations like ours to combat the systemic underinvestment that was taking place.

When I took this role, I knew — as we all did — that New York City was facing a poverty crisis, but also an economic mobility crisis. I knew then that we would need to use every arrow in Robin Hood's quiver — including our metric-driven and unparalleled fundraising and grantmaking expertise — in addition to some new tactics to address much-needed systemic change.

As we were making strides and experiencing the small victories in the poverty-fight, we could not have foreseen then how the world would change in this past year. The health and economic crisis, as well as the overdue reckoning of racial equity, have brought to bear vulnerabilities and inequities for families living in poverty that we have supported for 33 years.

In 2020, your unwavering generosity helped us to respond in force to these unprecedented challenges with bold and strategic grantmaking, effective partnerships, targeted advocacy, and critical relief.

And now, as I step down as Robin Hood's CEO, I have never been more confident in this incredible organization and our remarkable team's ability to build on our legacy of impact for decades to come.

These are perilous and momentous times, but Robin Hood was built for this. Thank you for everything you have done this past year and all you continue to do as we work to build a (new) New York.

Elevate,

Wes Moore

RISE UP NEW YORK RELIEF BENEFIT

The 2020 Robin Hood Benefit took the form of a telethon and raised over $115 million to support New Yorkers most impacted by COVID-19. Hosted by Tina Fey, the event featured a star-studded lineup of New York's biggest actors, athletes, musicians, politicians, and chefs. The event culminated with a Times Square virtual performance by Billy Joel.

ROBIN HOOD PLUGGED IN

The Robin Hood Plugged In speaker series was transformed into a virtual forum in 2020. The series featured illuminating conversations, offering a deep dive into Robin Hood's poverty-fighting work. Speakers included philanthropic leaders, executive directors from Robin Hood-funded programs, and other experts in the field.

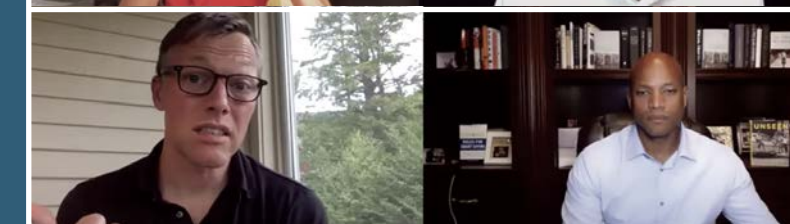

THE HEROES OF NEW YORK BROADCAST celebrated the impact of the extraordinary generosity and selflessness of New Yorkers, featuring innovative and dedicated individuals and organizations that have continued to help our neighbors in need. The citywide, star-studded, one-hour show shed light on the selfless efforts by New Yorkers from all walks of life to bring awareness and provide assistance to those who have been dramatically impacted by COVID-19.

INVESTORS CONFERENCE

The J.P. Morgan Robin Hood Investors Conference went virtual for the 8th annual two-day event that brought together leaders in business, investing, academia and policy to share actionable, money-making insights.

TOGETHER, WE CAN REBUILD A (NEW) NEW YORK CITY

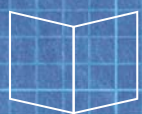

In addition to supporting our incredible network of nearly 300 community partners across all five boroughs, we are doubling down on the basics to get New Yorkers back on their feet, kids back on track, and adults back to work.

GET FAMILIES BACK ON THEIR FEET

Two million New Yorkers are struggling to put food on the table, and NYC tenants owe over $1B in missed rent payments. We're investing in families by strengthening the safety net:

- Rebuild NYC's emergency food infrastructure
- Help New Yorkers facing eviction stay in their homes
- Invest in health and mental health — including vaccine access
- Help eligible New Yorkers access public benefits like the child tax credit

GET KIDS BACK ON TRACK

Even prior to the pandemic, 70% of Black and Latinx students were not tracking on grade level, and 1 in 4 lacked access to an internet and/or computer when schools closed. And now, students of color could lose between 6 and 12 months of learning, double that of their white peers. We're investing in programs to help 50,000 K-12 students reach grade level and building initiatives that close the opportunity gap long term:

- Expand personal tutoring for students
- Accelerate learning in subjects like math and literacy
- Empower educators with high-quality curriculum & training
- Prioritize mental health screenings & services for students

GET NEW YORKERS BACK TO WORK

Nearly one million New Yorkers lost their jobs, with women leaving the workforce at unprecedented levels. So many of our beloved New York institutions and small businesses closed. We're getting New Yorkers back to work by reimagining the jobs of the future:

- Help women return to the workforce by expanding access to affordable childcare
- Prepare 10,000+ New Yorkers for higher-paying jobs by leveraging the tech sector
- Reduce barriers to college enrollment by strengthening CUNY's career pathways
- Help businesses reopen and rehire through advocacy and assistance programs

WE LEARNED SO MUCH FROM 2020

Here are a few ways we are approaching our work in 2021 and beyond:

WE WILL BE LASER FOCUSED ON DIVERSITY AND EQUITY IN OUR GRANTMAKING.

We'll invest in leaders of color and those who are reflective of the communities they serve as we acknowledge the obstacles these leaders have historically faced in accessing capital.

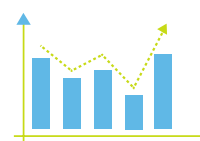

WE'LL ELEVATE COMMUNITY VOICES AT EVERY TURN.

We'll leverage the learnings of our participatory grantmaking pilot with the Design Insight Group and community-centric Mobility LABs and Power Fund initiatives to develop new approaches.

WE WILL ADVOCATE FOR SMART POLICY CHANGES TO SUPPORT THE COMMUNITIES WE SERVE.

And, we'll advise our leaders on how best to invest the federal dollars flowing into New York City so that they fund what works: 1) closing the achievement gap by expanding equitable education, 2) keeping families in their homes through rental assistance and legal support, and 3) cutting child poverty in half by expanding the child tax credit.

WE WILL FOLLOW THE DATA.

Our ROI lens will take a longer-time horizon because sustainable change doesn't happen overnight. We have reconfigured our reporting mechanisms to create more effective and targeted evaluations of our programs. We'll scale what works and pivot when we falter.

AS ALWAYS, ROBIN HOOD IS AN INVESTMENT WITH GOOD RETURNS.

Robin Hood's board covers all operating costs so that 100% of your gift goes directly to the poverty fight.
