Capacity Building & Data
Grantee Partner	Domain	Amount	Grant Purpose
Center on Budget and Policy Priorities	Capacity Building & Data	$300,000	To provide general operating support to the Center on Budget & Policy Priorities (the Center), which is committed to developing nonpartisan research to advance support for key poverty-fighting federal policy issues.
Columbia University Population Research Center	Capacity Building & Data	$305,000	To continue novel research examining the returns on social policy program investments and conduct quick turnaround analysis of antipoverty effects of policy changes.
National Council of Nonprofits	Capacity Building & Data	$650,000	To provide support for the activities described in the Proposal; provided, however, that no Grant Funds may be used for Phase 3 activities.
New York Focus Inc	Capacity Building & Data	$100,000	To create a new New York Focus reporter position to conduct investigative reporting into the decision-making and operations of the state's social service agencies.
New Yorkers United for Child Care	Capacity Building & Data	$300,000	To build a campaign that lays the groundwork for universal child care access in New York.
Project Hospitality	Capacity Building & Data	$50,000	In support of the organization's mission to serve low-income residents of Staten Island.
Schuyler Center for Analysis and Advocacy	Capacity Building & Data	$85,000	To implement a strategic communications plan in support of child poverty reduction investments in the FY26 budget and to educate lawmakers about the results of a new child care workforce survey.
The Advocacy Institute	Capacity Building & Data	$200,000	To equip New Yorkers with the legislative advocacy skills, knowledge, and tools they need to build power for their communities.