

Career Advancement
Grantee Partner	Domain	Amount	Grant Purpose
WorkOnward	Career Advancement	$90,000	To make hiring online more human and inclusive by connecting blue-collar workers and small/family-owned businesses in a transparent, people-first recruitment platform.
Upwardly Global	Career Advancement	$250,000	To place college-educated and highly skilled immigrant professionals into jobs in high-growth sectors, such as health care, finance and technology.
The Action Lab	Career Advancement	$175,000	To create a roadmap to build the capacity of the child-care workforce To advocate for wage increases and stronger benefits, addressing one of the most pressing issues impacting low-income New Yorkers—affordable, high-quality child care.
Rebuilding Together NYC	Career Advancement	$130,000	To train and place low-income New Yorkers in construction or home repair for apprenticeship jobs.
Project Renewal	Career Advancement	$335,000	To train low-income New Yorkers for careers in the social services sector, to support program alumni in their career advancement, and pilot a new job training program (the Care Corps).
Project Basta	Career Advancement	$125,000	To enroll first-generation college students into the Basta Fellowship, a soft skills career readiness program, and help them secure mobility wage careers upon graduation.
Nontraditional Employment For Women	Career Advancement	$350,000	To train women for jobs in the construction and building trades, transportation and utilities sectors.
New York City Employment & Training Coalition	Career Advancement	$100,000	To continue efforts to increase access to high-quality jobs and wages by influencing the development of an effective and sustainable workforce development ecosystem in New York City.
America on Tech	Career Advancement	$300,000	To prepare the next generation of technology leaders in order to decrease the economic and racial wealth gap in underestimated communities.
Borough of Manhattan Community College	Career Advancement	$400,000	To continue the development of a pilot holistic sector-based training program geared towards high-wage careers in the healthcare sector, with a particular focus on parents in the Bronx and Upper Manhattan.
Brooklyn Workforce Innovations	Career Advancement	$500,000	To train low-income New Yorkers for careers in commercial driving.
Cooper Union for the Advancement of Science and Art	Career Advancement	$225,000	To train low-income immigrants with science, technology, engineering and mathematics degrees so that they can be placed in technical jobs.
Edith and Carl Marks Jewish Community House of Bensonhurst	Career Advancement	$300,000	To support young adult refugees who fled the war in Ukraine with critical resettlement services and to provide of these young adults with a pathway to employment.
Edith and Carl Marks Jewish Community House of Bensonhurst	Career Advancement	$250,000	To provide job training and placement services to low-income adults.
FDNY Foundation	Career Advancement	$175,000	To train low-income young adults for jobs as emergency medical technicians, with a focus on placement into coveted positions at the Fire Department of the City of New York.

Henry Street Settlement	Career Advancement	$300,000	To enroll at-risk youth into the On Ramps to Opportunity program through a team of “credible messengers,” and connect them to education and/or employment programs at Henry Street.
JobsFirst NYC	Career Advancement	$250,000	To support JobsFirstNYC’s implementation of employment networks in the green economy, tech and health care sectors.
New Economy Project	Career Advancement	$125,000	To provide direct legal assistance, including through a financial justice hotline, and to bring impact litigation, in order to help low-income New Yorkers achieve financial security.