

High Quality Education
Grantee Partner	Domain	Amount	Grant Purpose
University Settlement Society	High-Quality Education	$600,000	To promote social-emotional outcomes of children ages zero to five by supporting the integration of mental health consultation and mental health services in center-based child care.
Throughline Learning	High-Quality Education	$315,000	To support school-based staff and other community members in the Bronx to work as paid tutors in schools and enroll in higher education and teacher certification pathways.
The Institute for College Access & Success	High-Quality Education	$200,000	To mitigate harm for New York higher education students and borrowers emanating from changing federal policy landscape.
The Inspired Community Project	High-Quality Education	$250,000	To provide specialized child care for low-income children in the Bronx under the age of five, offering full-day child care integrated with developmental and behavioral health services.
The City University of New York	High-Quality Education	$675,000	To integrate the science of reading into pre-service teacher education courses across all schools of education at the City University of New York.
The City University of New York	High-Quality Education	$250,000	To drive innovation within the education sector by piloting an artificial intelligence capacity-building program for nonprofit managers who are alumni of the City University of New York.
The Children's Agenda	High-Quality Education	$200,000	To leverage T.C.A.'s Kids Can't Wait Campaign to strengthen and expand mobilizing efforts and research capacity to successfully advocate for reform and improvement of New York's Early Intervention system.
Tech:NYC Foundation	High-Quality Education	$400,000	To support the Decoded Futures initiative in iterating scalable solutions for education nonprofits in New York City to build artificial intelligence skills and leverage emergent technology to improve academic outcomes for students.
Teaching Matters	High-Quality Education	$1,001,000	To promote the literacy skills of preschoolers by providing professional learning and intensive coaching that aligns with NYC Reads to early childhood educators in public schools.
Teaching Lab	High-Quality Education	$1,500,000	To promote the literacy skills of preschoolers by providing professional learning and intensive coaching that aligns with NYC Reads to early childhood educators in public schools.
Teach for America New York	High-Quality Education	$375,000	To recruit, place, train and retain a diverse set of teachers in New York City public school classrooms.
State University of New York	High-Quality Education	$200,000	To support the integration of the science of reading into teacher education programs at the State University of New York.
Sponsors for Educational Opportunity	High-Quality Education	$120,000	To increase the rate of college matriculation for students in grades nine through 12 with academic enrichment and college advising services.
Scientist Maker	High-Quality Education	$90,000	To build essential STEM and critical thinking skills for an AI-driven world.
Promise Project	High-Quality Education	$225,000	To improve early literacy skills for low-income children with learning disabilities.
Playlab.ai	High-Quality Education	$400,000	To embed computational thinking into the Playlab platform and trainings to build both computational thinking skills and artificial intelligence literacy among educators and students in New York City.
Partnership with Children	High-Quality Education	$500,000	To provide comprehensive mental health and academic services to young people across Partnership with Children's network of New York City public schools to prepare them for high school graduation and postsecondary success.

OneGoal	High-Quality Education	$150,000	To increase the number of low-income students who attend college and persist through college, by providing school-based college counseling.
NYC Muslim Center	High-Quality Education	$350,000	To wind down support for Uplift, a community-driven parenting series that aims to improve literacy and social-emotional outcomes for children aged zero to five years in the Muslim community of New York City.
New York Public Library	High-Quality Education	$150,000	To optimize reach of the library's programming to low-income individuals and enhance the quality of existing library programs that aim to increase early literacy skills.
Morgan Stanley Children's Hospital	High-Quality Education	$475,000	To provide comprehensive mental health supports to students and their families at 14 elementary schools.
MDRC	High-Quality Education	$398,000	To conduct an evaluation of three distinct interventions aimed at increasing the high school graduation rate of over-aged and under-credited youth at transfer schools.
Harlem Children's Zone	High-Quality Education	$2,000,000	To provide general operating support for Harlem Children's Zone's youth programming, and to increase the number of families that enroll in public benefits, housing assistance, income supports and health-care programs.
Grand Street Settlement	High-Quality Education	$412,000	To improve the quality of child care, including the mental health and social-emotional environments, through the IT-CHILD mental health consultation program.
GO Project	High-Quality Education	$225,000	To provide academic and social-emotional skill development to low-income elementary and middle school students through outside-of-school and summer programming.
Fund for New York City Public Schools	High-Quality Education	$2,500,000	To implement New York City Reads, a citywide initiative to roll out high-quality curriculum and teacher training to ensure all students learn to read.
Fund for New York City Public Schools	High-Quality Education	$247,600	To support an $81 million public-private partnership to provide computer science education to all New York City public school students.
Fishtank Learning	High-Quality Education	$350,000	To integrate artificial intelligence into Fishtank Learning's high-quality curriculum platform to drive enhanced personalized learning experiences leading to improved literacy outcomes for New York City high school students.
East Side House Settlement	High-Quality Education	$510,000	To provide unemployed, out-of-school youth in the Mott Haven section of the South Bronx with the support to complete their high school equivalency, access middle-skills career opportunities and be placed in a job or enroll in college.
Cypress Hills Local Development Corporation	High-Quality Education	$50,000	General operating support from the Aronson Family Foundation.
CUNY ACE	High-Quality Education	$670,000	To support a cohort of young men of color in the proven Accelerate, Complete, Engage (ACE) program at CUNY's York College, to dramatically increase the four-year bachelor's degree graduation rate.
CUNY ACE	High-Quality Education	$515,000	To improve graduation rates among young men of color at John Jay College through a collaboration between CUNY ACE and My Brother's Keeper (M.B.K.), an initiative of the Obama Foundation.
CollegeBound Initiative	High-Quality Education	$580,000	To boost the rate of college matriculation for students across at least 26 high schools and to implement a near-peer college advising and persistence program across 18 four-year and two-year colleges.
Citizens' Committee for Children of New York	High-Quality Education	$50,000	To support a media relations strategy connected to the Campaign for Children's advocacy around early childhood education.

Child Mind Institute	High-Quality Education	$150,000	To implement a literacy tutoring program for first- and second-grade students.
Change Impact	High-Quality Education	$160,000	To develop an implementation plan and pilot recommendations that will support the city's priority to enhance enrollment in child care for children living in shelter.
Center for Educational Equity	High-Quality Education	$28,000	To support equitable educational funding, analyze New York's foundation aid formula to develop a new one that reflects changes in student populations, updated student need metrics, and critical modifications like classroom size mandates.
Borough of Manhattan Community College	High-Quality Education	$500,000	To help improve college retention and graduation for Black and Latino male students.
Beam Center	High-Quality Education	$350,000	To provide low-income students with high-quality work-based learning connected to youth employment and training in specialized fields.
Autism Speaks	High-Quality Education	$250,000	To enhance low-income families' access to clinical therapies and programs addressing developmental delays and autism through community partnerships and peer navigation.
Association to Benefit Children	High-Quality Education	$50,000	To provide one-time general operating support to supplement the Association to Benefit Children's programs and operations.
All Our Kin	High-Quality Education	$600,000	To provide training in early childhood education, business management and leadership skills for family child care providers to improve the availability of high-quality child care in the South Bronx.
Affectifi	High-Quality Education	$90,000	To build an AI-powered "learning layer" that integrates emotional literacy training into popular children's streaming content on platforms like YouTube and Disney+.
50-State Campaign for Achievement Now	High-Quality Education	$375,000	To expand summer learning opportunities for children entering the first through ninth grades in public charter schools across New York City.